

Problem of the Week

Problem B

A Family Matter

A family has one set of twin children, one set of triplets, and two parents. The youngest children are five years old.

If the mean of the family members' ages is 18 years, the mode is 10 years, and the parents are the same age, how old are the parents?

